DRC Update

At the end of 2012 John Wade resigned from teaching duties at Bond after 22 years at the university. He has moved to Vancouver in Canada where many relatives live, including his three children and first grandchild. In Vancouver John is beginning another mediation practice and also teaching short courses. He will also continue his association with the Dispute Resolution Centre.

MEDIATING WITH FAMILIES

On 5 December 2012 Libby Taylor and Linda Kochanski, co-directors of DRC, launched the 3rd ed of the book "Mediating with Families" by Linda Fisher and Mieke Brandon. This revised edition captures a wide range of new developments and continues to provide unique insights into the theory and practice of family mediation in Australia. It includes many case studies and reflective examples which enable readers to consider how their own values and beliefs can influence the mediation process.

TUSCANY WORKSHOP

Greg Rooney, Margaret Ross and Barbara Wilson will lead a Mediation Workshop in Tuscany on 16-21 June 2013. They have been practising mediators for more than 20 years working in a broad range of disputes and will bring a practitioner's perspective to the workshop. The workshop will be tailored to meet the particular needs of the participants, suitable for both experienced and novice mediators, and will include reflective skills training.
