

List of Contributors

James Byrnes, BA, LLB (Hons) (Qld), LLM (QUT), Solicitor, Queensland, works in the Commercial Litigation group at Clayton Utz and tutors at the Queensland University of Technology. He has acted on behalf of energy and resources clients, including litigation between joint venturers.

Therese Catanzariti, BEc, LLB (Hons) (Syd), LLM (Merit) (Lond), is a barrister at 13 Wentworth Chambers, Sydney and a lecturer in Intellectual Property in the Diploma of Law, Legal Practitioners Admission Board. Before being called to the NSW Bar, Therese was a senior associate at King & Wood Mallesons in Sydney, and Senior Legal Counsel at GE Healthcare in Helsinki, Finland. Her intellectual property professional practice has included entertainment law, patent standardisation, open source licensing, IT licensing and piracy litigation.

Rhonda Chesmond, BA, LLB (Qld), LLM (ANU), Solicitor, is a Special Counsel at Thomsons Lawyers in Brisbane. She has practised for many years in the area of corporate finance and insolvency at large Australian law firms and has also been a lecturer at Queensland University of Technology and research fellow at Griffith University. Her professional, research and teaching interests are in the areas of corporate law, corporate governance, fiduciary law, insolvency and intellectual property.

Professor Sharon Christensen, LLB (Hons) (QIT) LLM (QUT), Solicitor Queensland, is Gadens Professor of Property Law at the Queensland University of Technology and consultant to Gadens Lawyers. Professor Christensen has practised, researched, published and lectured extensively in aspects of property and commercial transactions, including land contracts, leasing, consumer law compliance and commercial contracts since 1990.

Associate Professor Tina Cockburn, BCom, LLB (Hons) (Qld); LLM, Grad Cert Ed (Higher Ed) (QUT); SEDA Accredited Teacher in Higher Education; TEP, is an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Law, Queensland University of Technology and before that practised as a solicitor with a national commercial law firm in the areas of commercial property, trusts and estate law. For over 20 years Associate Professor Cockburn has lectured and published extensively in the areas of Equity, Trusts, Tort, Elder and Health Law.

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Professor Stephen Corones, BCom, LLB (Qld), LLM (Lond), PhD (Qld), Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland, is the author of Competition Law in Australia and The Australian Consumer Law. He is a Professor in the Queensland University of Technology Faculty of Law, a member of the Competition and Consumer Committee of the Law Council of Australia and a consultant with DLA Piper Australia, Lawyers, Brisbane

Bill Dixon, B Econ, LLB (Hons) (Qld), LLM, SJD (QUT), is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Law, Queensland University of Technology. Before taking up a full-time academic position, Dr Dixon practised for many years in the areas of property and banking and finance as a Senior Associate of a large Australian law firm. Dr Dixon has written extensively in the areas of property transactions including land transactions, property law and titles office practice, contract law, land mortgages and allied banking and finance subjects.

Professor WD Duncan, LLB (Qld), LLM (Lond), Solicitor, Queensland, is a Professor in the Faculty of Law at the Queensland University of Technology. He has practised, taught and published in the areas of property law, land transactions, commercial leases, real estate mortgages, real estate agency practice, business contracts since 1970. He has been a specialist consultant in property law matters at Allens Linklaters (and its predecessor firms) since 1989.

Geoffrey Fisher, BA (Hons), LLB (Hons) (Qld), BCL (Oxon), Barrister, Queensland and High Court of Australia, was formerly a Senior Lecturer in Law at the Queensland University of Technology. He has published and lectured in Conflict of Laws and International Trade Law in the Master of Laws course at the Queensland University of Technology.

Simon Fisher, LLB (Hons) (NSWIT); Cert of Prac Legal Training (Kuring-gai CAE); LLM (QUT), is a barrister at law. Simon has taught at universities in Australia (Queensland University of Technology, the University of Queensland and the University of Technology, Sydney as well as the AGSM), Canada, the United States, Saudi Arabia, South Africa and Singapore principally in commercial and corporate law subjects. Simon has practised actively as a lawyer since 1988 across the broad spectrum of domestic and international commercial law and civil law and personal property law. Simon's legal practice has an emphasis on specialist advice and trial and appellate advocacy (including cross-border disputes) in fields as diverse as banking and financial disputes, real property disputes, Admiralty disputes, corporate disputes, co-ownership disputes, arbitrations, intellectual property disputes, competition law and international trade. Simon was the original author of the International Trade title in Halsbury's Laws of Australia. Simon has authored or co-authored many works, mainly in the domain of corporate law and commercial law both in Australia and internationally.

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Karla Fraser, BA (Hons), LLB (Qld) (Hons), University Medallist (University of Queensland), is a banking and finance partner of Allens Linklaters. Karla is admitted as a solicitor in Queensland and in England and Wales and has extensive international finance experience, having practised for over eight years in London at an eminent international law firm. Karla is a member of the Banking & Financial Services Law Association of Australia and New Zealand. Karla advises and presents nationally in relation to the personal property securities law reform in Australia.

John Hedge, LLB (Hons) (QUT), B Bus (Acc) (QUT), Grad Dip Leg Prac (College of Law), Solicitor, is a Senior Associate in the energy and resources practice group of Allens Linklaters. He specialises in resources joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions in the resources sector, access to infrastructure and competition law, and has advised on numerous high profile Australian and international transactions and projects in the resources sector. John has been recognised as a rising star in the energy and resources field by Doyle's Guide to the Australian Legal Profession and is a member of the Australian Mining and Petroleum Law Association's Queensland branch committee.

Sheryl Jackson, LLB (Hons) (QIT), LLM (Qld), Solicitor, is an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Law at the Queensland University of Technology. She has a background in professional practice particularly in the areas of intellectual property law, commercial litigation, and taxation law. She has taught for many years in these fields at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, and has published a wide range of books and articles on these subjects.

Alan Millhouse, BCom, LLB (Qld), LLM (Lond), Hon LLD (Qld), is a former banking and infrastructure partner of Allens Linklaters and is now a consultant to the firm. He is a former President of the Banking and Financial Services Law Association of Australia and New Zealand and a former President of the Infrastructure Association of Queensland. Alan is an Adjunct Professor in law at the University of Queensland.

Neil Thompson, BA, LLM (Qld), has been a member of the Queensland Bar since 1981 before which time he practised as a solicitor. He has particular interests in commercial and property law and is the author of The Rights of Parties to Illegal Transactions published by The Federation Press in 1991. He has had two articles published on logic in proof and set theory in Philosophy Study, an international philosophy journal.