

Who's where...

Recent movements in the library and information services sector

Bond University appoints a new associate director

Mark Sutherland has joined Bond University Library as associate director, Information Access Services. As a member of the Library's Strategic Management Team, he will oversee information systems and electronic services, lead and manage all information access services and will also be responsible for facilities, quality and copyright.

Mark has a wealth of experience in academic libraries, including fourteen years at the University of South Africa Library where he held the position of senior deputy director. Since his arrival in Australia in 1997, he has served as library manager at the now Australian Lutheran College in Adelaide and more recently at Griffith University.

Endeavor Information Systems

Endeavor Information Systems recently announced that David Carlson has returned to Endeavor as director of Customer Support. Carlson will lead Endeavor's growing Customer Support department, which now includes the Library Support, Technical Support, and Digital Software Support areas.

Endeavor's Customer Support group delivers fast response time, clear communication and high levels of customer support satisfaction to nearly 1300 libraries using Endeavor's Voyager integrated library management system, the ENCompass system for managing, searching and linking digital collections, and the LinkFinderPlus comprehensive linking system in addition to supporting Endeavor's numerous other system offerings.

Ian E Wilson appointed librarian and archivist of Canada

Ian E Wilson has been appointed librarian and archivist of Canada. Mr Wilson will now head Library and Archives Canada. This new institution combines the collections, services and staff expertise of the former National Archives of Canada and the National Library of Canada.

Mr Wilson was appointed national archivist of Canada in July 1999. During his career, he has been Archivist of Ontario (1986–1999) and Saskatchewan's Provincial Archivist (1976–1986). He has served as Adjunct Associate Professor in the Faculties of Information Studies and Graduate Studies at the University of Toronto and as a member of the Ontario Government's Information and Information Technology Management Committee. For several years, he was also responsible for the Ontario Public Library system.

Tom Delsey appointed as AACR3 editor

Tom Delsey, a Canadian consultant specialising in information modelling, has been appointed editor of the next edition of The Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules (AACR).

The Committee of Principals for AACR made the appointment in preparation for a comprehensive revision of the rules. The new edition, with the working title of 'AACR3: Resource Description and Access', will be published in 2007 and will enable easier application of international cataloguing principles to new and existing materials.

Delsey has extensive library and information modelling experience. His consulting projects have included the 'Functional requirements for bibliographic records' (FRBR) and the 'Functional requirements and numbering of authority records' (FRANAR) for the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA). Delsey also prepared 'The logical structure of the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules' for the Joint Steering Committee for Revision of AACR (JSC).

Australia Council Literature Board appointment

Author Sophie Masson has been appointed to the Australia Council's Literature Board. Since her first book was published in 1990,

Ms Masson has had more than thirty-five novels for adults, young adults and children published in Australia and several published overseas. Ms Masson is also a member of the Australian Society of Authors, the Children's Book Council and the NSW Writer's Centre.

Museums Australia

John Cross has been appointed to the position of national executive officer for Museums Australia. John has worked with visitor programs in various capacities at the National Gallery of Victoria, the Australian Centre for Contemporary Art, the Museum of Chinese Australian History, the National Museum of Australia at Old Parliament House, the ANU Drill Hall Gallery and the Museum of Modern Art at Heide, and has been the national co-ordinator for Adult Learner's Week for Adult Learning Australia.

John's formal qualifications include a Graduate Diploma of Education (Secondary), a Master of Letters (Art History), and a Bachelor of Arts (Art History, History & English).

New CEO for school quality institute

Ms Fran Hinton has been appointed as the new chief executive of the National Institute for Quality Teaching and School Leadership (NIQTSL).

Fran has a proven record as a chief executive with extensive knowledge in areas of vital interest to the NIQTSL and of key stakeholders in the field. Ms Hinton is a highly-respected educator who has had a distinguished career in the school education sector and brings outstanding knowledge and experience to the work of the Institute.

We wrote the book

At Chess we have the industry expertise and the specialist equipment to make your next library move fast, simple, secure, and 100% reliable.

- Fully enclosed trolleys safeguard against loss
- Fixed height shelving prevents damage to books
- Rapid access contents during transport if required
- Efficient relocation and reinstallation
- Sequentially numbered trolleys preserve your library numbering system.

Phone Australia wide

13 14 69

Branches Australia wide

Chess

ADL/INALS WIL 21/04/02