

ALIA BOARD ELECTION 2018

YOUR ASSOCIATION. YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO VOTE.
alia.org.au/elections

VOTING CLOSES
13 APRIL 2018

ALIA BOARD ELECTION 2018

Make sure you vote in the 2018 ALIA Board Election.

ALIA is pleased to announce that Robert Knight has been formally declared elected to the position of Vice-President (President-elect). Following the ALIA Annual General Meeting on Tuesday 15 May, Robert will assume the role of Vice-President until 2019 when he will become the President of the Association. In 2018, ALIA Members have the opportunity to vote for Directors of the Board in two categories:

- Institutional Director
- General Board Member (two positions to be filled).

Nominations have been received from seven highly qualified candidates, with experience in a range of library sectors and located in most states and territories.

Robert Knight

The election will run from 5 March through to 13 April 2018. For more information about the election candidates and the voting process, visit the ALIA website at (alia.org.au/elections).

The successful candidates will take office following our Annual General Meeting.

Further details about the Annual General meeting can be found at (alia.org.au/AGM).

INTRODUCING YOUR NEW EDITOR OF INCITE

My name is BRENDAN EICHHOLZER and I am the newly appointed editor of INCITE. I joined the team at ALIA House in September, and now get to provide you with up to date information on library and information services and all the work that ALIA does in supporting its Members. I come to this role with three years' experience working for a school library service provider and I am pleased to be able to continue my work in providing a platform for library and information service professionals to showcase the great work that they do for their communities. I look forward to seeing your contribution to INCITE. Please feel free to email me at any time (incite@alia.org.au) or call (02 6215 8222) to discuss what you like about INCITE. 