SUMMARY
EJECTMENT.An Act for the speedy recovery of the possession of Tenements unlawfully held over. [4th August, 1853.]

WHEREAS it is necessary to make further provision for the recovery of the possession of Tenements unlawfully held over by the tenants thereof Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

11 Vic. No. 2
repealed.

1. From and after the passing of this Act the Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act to facilitate the recovery of possession of Tenements after due determination of the tenancy" shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Possession of tenements may be recovered before Justices of the Peace.

2. When the term or interest of the tenant of any land held by him for any term of years or for any less estate or interest either with or without being liable to the payment of any rent shall have expired by effluxion of time or shall have been determined by notice to quit or demand of possession and such tenant or any person claiming under him who shall actually occupy such land or any part thereof shall neglect to quit and deliver up possession of such land or of such part thereof respectively it shall be lawful for the landlord of such land or his agent to exhibit his information before any Justice of the Peace and such Justice shall thereupon issue a summons and if required so to do a duplicate thereof under his hand against the person so neglecting to quit and deliver up possession requiring such person to appear before any two or more Justices of the Peace at the place where the Petty Sessions of the district in which the land of which possession is sought to be recovered shall be situated shall usually sit to shew cause why such landlord should not be put into possession of such land and if at the time and place appointed in and by such summons or at any adjournment thereof (whether the tenant or occupier shall or shall not appear) such landlord or such agent shall give due proof according to law to the satisfaction of the Justices before whom the matter shall be heard or the majority of them of the creation and of the expiration or determination in manner aforesaid of the tenancy and that such landlord then has and had at the time of the service of the summons upon the tenant or occupier lawful right as against such tenant or occupier to the possession of such land and that the tenant or occupier against whom such summons shall be issued was the tenant in possession or the actual occupier of such land at the time of the service of such summons then (upon proof of the service of the summons in case the tenant or occupier shall not appear) it shall be lawful for the said Justices or the majority of them unless reasonable cause shall be shewn or shall appear to them to the contrary to adjudge the landlord by or for or on whose behalf such information shall be exhibited entitled to possession of such land and to award to the said landlord or to such agent by whom such information shall be exhibited his costs to be assessed by the said Justices or the majority of them and to issue a warrant under their hands directed to the constables and peace officers of or acting in or for the district or place within which such land shall be situate or to any of them or to any other person or persons as a special bailiff or special bailiffs in that behalf requiring and authorizing have been issued or against any constable peace officer or bailiff by whom such warrant may have been executed for issuing such warrant or executing the same respectively by reason that the landlord by or for or on whose behalf the same shall be obtained had not lawful right to the possession of the land in respect of which such warrant shall have issued.

8. In all cases where at the time of executing any such warrant the landlord by whom or for or on whose behalf such warrant shall have been obtained shall have as against the person in possession of such land lawful right to the possession thereof then neither such landlord nor his agent nor any other person acting on his behalf shall be deemed to be a trespasser by reason merely of any irregularity or informality in the mode of proceeding for obtaining possession under the authority of this Act but the party aggrieved may if he think fit bring an action on the case for any such irregularity or informality.

Where landlord's title good not to be deemed a trespasser but be liable by action on the case for any irregularity.

9. No such warrant nor anything herein contained shall protect any landlord by whom or for or on whose behalf any such warrant for the delivery of possession of any land shall be obtained as aforesaid from any action which may be brought against him by any person in possession of such land or any part thereof for or in respect of any entry upon or taking possession thereof under or by virtue of any such warrant where such landlord shall not at the time of executing the same have as against such person in possession lawful right to the possession thereof and in all such cases as last aforesaid such landlord shall be liable in respect of such entry and taking possession in like manner as if the same had been made or taken by him or by his direction without the authority of any such warrant Provided also that nothing herein contained shall prejudicially affect any rights to which any person may be entitled as out-going tenant by the custom of the country or otherwise.

Act not to protect persons who have no legal right.

And in such case landlord to be deemed a trespasser.

10. In construing this Act the word "land" shall be taken to signify lands houses or other corporeal hereditaments and the word "person" shall be taken to comprehend a body politic corporate or collegiate as well as an individual and the word "agent" shall be taken to signify any person usually employed by the landlord in the letting of the land or in the collection of the rents thereof or specially authorized to act in the particular matter by writing under the hand of such landlord and unless there be something in the context repugnant thereto any word denoting the singular number or the male sex shall be taken to extend to any other number of persons and things and to both sexes.

Construction of terms.

11. In all proceedings under this Act not herein expressly provided for the same shall be regulated and conducted in accordance with the provisions of the law in force for the time being respecting summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace out of Sessions and all such provisions shall so far as the same are applicable be in force and observed in all proceedings under this Act not herein expressly provided for but no person shall be imprisoned for non-payment of any costs awarded under the provisions hereof and any person who shall feel aggrieved by any order adjudication or warrant made or issued under the provisions hereof shall have the like power of applying to the Supreme Court of the said Colony or any Judge thereof in order to obtain a prohibition to restrain any Justice or Justices by whom any such order adjudication or warrant may be made or issued and the landlord or agent or tenant or occupier or other person interested in maintaining the same from proceeding (or from further proceeding as the case may be) upon or in respect of the same as are given by the Act of the said Governor and Council passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act to adopt and"

Where not expressly provided for Justices to proceed under 14 Vic. No. 43.

And provisions therein as to prohibition to apply to proceedings under this Act.

"apply"

Summary Ejectment.

“apply certain Acts of Parliament passed for facilitating the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace and for protecting them from vexatious actions and to prevent persons convicted of offences from taking undue advantage of mere defects or errors in form” or which by any other Act in force for the time being may be given to any person feeling aggrieved by the summary convictions or orders of Justices of the Peace and all the provisions of the said last recited Act or any other Act in force for the time being in reference to applying for and obtaining a prohibition in respect of such summary convictions and orders shall apply to and be in force in respect to every such order adjudication and warrant made or issued under the provisions of this Act and shall be applied in like manner as far as practicable as if every such order adjudication or warrant were such a summary conviction or order as aforesaid.

 be put into possession of the said land And whereas the matter of the said information has in pursuance of such summons to the said (E. F.) or (G. H.) as aforesaid been duly called on before us (the Justices making the adjudication) of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the Colony aforesaid (describing the jurisdiction of the Justices before whom the matter is called on) at the said place at which the said (E. F.) or (G. H.) was so summoned to appear as aforesaid we being (all) or (a majority of) the Justices then and there sitting and the said (E. F.) or (G. H.) having then and there appeared before us to defend and oppose the said information and the said (A. B.) or (C. D.) (having failed to appear) or (having also appeared but having failed to give proof to our satisfaction) in support of his said information we do therefore adjudge that the said information be dismissed and the same is hereby dismissed accordingly (Here add in case costs shall be awarded to the tenant or occupier—) And we do assess the costs of the said (E. F.) or (G. H.) of appearing and defending and opposing the said information at the sum of which said sum of money we do award to the said (E. F.) or (G. H.) for his said costs And we do order and adjudge that the same shall be paid by the said (A. B.) or (C. D.) to the said (E. F.) or (G. H.) And we do further award and adjudge that if the same be not paid forthwith that the same be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the said

 Or [To and persons specially named for the purposes hereinafter mentioned and to each of them.]

WHEREAS* on the day of now (instant) or (last past) at (the place where the adjudication took place) in the District of in the Colony of New South Wales the matter of an information exhibited by (A. B.) or (C. D. the agent of A. B.) against (E. F.) or (G. H.) under and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of the said Colony passed in the year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria intituled "An Act for the speedy recovery of the possession of Tenements unlawfully held over" was duly heard and adjudicated upon by (the Justices making the adjudication) of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the said Colony (describing the jurisdiction of the Justices making the adjudication) and such adjudication was in favor of the said (A. B.) or (C. D. on behalf of the said A. B.) or (E. F.) or (G. H.) and in and by such adjudication the said Justices did assess the costs of the said (A. B.) or (C. D.) or (E. F.) or (G. H.) in the premises at the sum of (as in the adjudication) and did award to the said (A. B.) or (C. D.) or (E. F.) or (G. H.) the said sum of money for his said costs and did order and adjudge that the same should be paid forthwith by the said (E. F.) or (G. H.) to the said (A. B.) or (C. D.) [or by the said (A. B.)
