

1994—No. 535

POLICE SERVICE ACT 1990—REGULATION

(Relating to exemption from reporting misconduct already reported to Police Service Royal Commission)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 136 of 7 October 1994]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Police Service Act 1990, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

Signed Garry West MP
Minister for Police and Emergency Services.

Commencement

1. This Regulation commences on October 7th 1994.

Amendment

2 The Police Service Regulation 1990 is amended by inserting at the end of clause 30 (2) (c) the following word and paragraph:

; or

- (d) that has already been reported (whether or not by the officer) to the Police Service Royal Commission (the Royal Commission of inquiry appointed by the commission issued by the Governor by letters patent under the Public Seal on 13 May 1994).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Police Service Regulation 1990 (clause 30) requires a police officer to report to a superior officer any misconduct (alleged to or believed by the reporting officer) of another officer. However, misconduct need not be reported if it has already been brought up in a complaint, in a trial, or in another clause 30 report.

The object of this Regulation is to provide that misconduct need not be reported also in a case where it has already been reported to the Police Service Royal Commission.

This Regulation is made under section 181 (Regulations relating to discipline) and section 219 (Regulations) of the Police Service Act 1990.
