ANNO VICESIMO-SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 13.

AN ACT to provide for the Appointment, Removal, and Payment of Coroners in Tasmania.
[20 October, 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the appointment, removal, and payment of Coroners in Tasmania: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, by Commission under his hand, to appoint such and so many persons as he may see fit as and to be Coroners of Tasmania and its Dependencies.

Governor may appoint Coroners by Commission.

2 All persons who, before the passing of this Act, may have been appointed Coroners of Tasmania and its Dependencies, by Commission under the hand of the Governor, shall be deemed and taken to have been duly appointed such Coroners to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Persons already appointed Coroners to be deemed to have been duly appointed.

3 Every Coroner of Tasmania and its Dependencies shall hold office during pleasure only, and may be removed from office by the Governor.

Coroners to hold office during pleasure.

4 In the case of every Inquest there shall be paid to the Coroner who holds such Inquest the sum of One Pound, and over and above such payment a further sum at the rate of Sixpence per mile for every mile which such Coroner shall be obliged to travel from his usual place of residence for the purpose of holding such Inquest.

Coroner's fees and mileage.

See Sec: 17 of 26th Nov 1862
