

Leases and licences of land subject to mining rights.

7 After section one hundred and twenty of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

“120A—(1) Before granting a lease or licence under this Act in respect of any land subject to a mining right the Commissioner shall serve such notice as may be prescribed on the person in whom the right is vested and shall consider any representations made to him by that person, within one month after the service of the notice, with respect to the proposal to grant the lease or licence.

“(2) If he considers it necessary so to do in order to facilitate, or prevent interference with, mining operations on any land subject to a lease or licence under this Act, or any previous Act, the Commissioner may serve notice in writing on the holder of the lease or licence directing him not to institute, or to discontinue, any such practice as may be specified in the notice.

“(3) Any directions given to a lessee under subsection (2) of this section, so long as they remain in force, shall, for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3) of section ninety-four, have effect as if they were conditions contained in the lease.

“(4) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that the holder of a licence has not complied with any direction given to him under subsection (2) of this section, he may cancel the licence.

“(5) Except as is otherwise expressly provided in this Act or the Mining Act 1929, nothing in a lease or licence under this Act or any previous Act derogates from any mining right, or entitles the holder of the lease or licence to interfere with, or obstruct, the exercise of any mining right, or to interfere with any work constructed or other thing done in the exercise of any mining right.”.
