

COMMONWEALTH POWERS (TRADE PRACTICES).

No. 62 of 1966.

AN ACT to refer certain matters to the Parliament of the Commonwealth. [22 December 1966.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Commonwealth Powers (Trade Practices) Act 1966. Short title and commencement.

(2) This Act shall commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

2—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the following matters are referred to the Parliament of the Commonwealth, namely:— Reference of matters to the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

- (a) Agreements, arrangements, understandings, practices and acts restrictive of, or tending to restrict, competition in trade or commerce; and
- (b) The exercise or use by a person, or by a combination or a member of a combination, in or in relation to trade or commerce, of power, influence or a position of advantage resulting from the extent of the share of that person or combination in some portion of trade or commerce.

(2) The reference made by this Act shall commence on the date of commencement of this Act and shall continue until it terminates in accordance with this section or this Act is sooner repealed.

(3) If no proclamation under subsection (4) of this section is issued before the thirty-first day of December 1972, the reference made by this Act shall terminate on that date.

(4) At any time during the continuance of the reference made by this Act, the Governor may, by proclamation issued with the approval of both Houses of Parliament expressed by resolution—

- (a) declare that the reference made by this Act shall continue until a date specified in the proclamation, in which case the reference shall continue until that date, and shall, subject to the effect of any later proclamation under this subsection, terminate on that date; or

(b) declare that the reference made by this Act shall continue without limitation of time, in which case the reference shall not terminate unless and until this Act is repealed.

Interpretation of section two.

3—(1) In section two, “trade” includes the supply of services.

(2) Without limiting the generality of section two, that section is intended to be so construed that the legislative power of the Parliament of the Commonwealth resulting from the reference made by that section includes the power to enact provisions having the operation, in respect of matters that are within the legislative power of the Parliament of the State, that the Trade Practices Act 1965-1966 of the Commonwealth would have if the operation of that Act were not restricted by reason of the limits of the legislative powers of the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

ELDERLY CITIZENS' CLUBS AND YOUTH CENTRES.

No. 63 of 1966.

AN ACT to make provision with respect to the granting of financial assistance to certain organizations concerned with the welfare of elderly citizens or young persons and for matters connected therewith, and to amend the Local Government Act 1962. [22 December 1966.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as the Elderly Citizens' Clubs and Youth Centres Act 1966.
