No. XLI.

AN ACT to amend the Beer Duty Act, 1898.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Beer Duty Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be construed as one with the Beer Duty Act, 1898, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation with 62 Vict., 4.

2. IF a person is employed or directed by another to open any vessel to which a stamp is affixed, and, when doing so, fails or neglects to comply with section seventeen of the principal Act, the employer or person giving the direction shall be guilty of an offence against the principal Act.

On breach by servant
of s. 17 of principal
Act, employer guilty.

63° VICTORIÆ, No. 41.

Beer Duty Act—Amendment.

---

On breach by servant
of s. 18 of principal
Act, employer guilty.

3. If a person is employed or directed by another to withdraw or aid in the withdrawal of any beer from any vessel containing the same, and, when doing so, fails to comply with section eighteen of the principal Act, the employer or person giving the direction shall be guilty of an offence against the principal Act.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.
